*On Sunday, January 27, Salem College artist-in-residence and world-renowned keyboard pedagogue, Dr. Barbara Lister-Sink, will present a workshop on Injury-Preventive Keyboard Technique. The workshop will also offer an introduction to Alexander Technique by Salem College faculty member, Susan Perkins. Following the workshop will be a master class with UNCSA & Salem College organ professor, Dr. Timothy Olsen. Optional individual lessons with Dr. Olsen are available following the master class.

**The cost of the workshop, master class and private lessons are included in the Festival & Competition application fee.*

I would like to perform in the master class with Dr. Olsen on Sunday, January 27:

Application and CD must be received by December 15, 2018.

UNC-School of the Arts/Salem College/Piedmont NC Chapter AGO High School Organ Competition 2019 Rules

1. The competition is open to any organ student who is a high school senior or younger.
  2. By December 15, 2018, contestants must submit a CD recording containing two contrasting works:
    - a. A Bach Prelude (or Toccata or Fantasy) & Fugue (including the “8 Little”) or two movements from a trio sonata or concerto.
    - b. One or more contrasting movement(s) from a single work in the 19th – 20th/21st century repertoires.
  3. Also submitted on the CD recording must be the playing of a hymn (introduction & two stanzas with appropriate registration, reharmonizations, descants, or other embellishments) chosen from the following hymns (please use the version downloadable from the competition web site: <http://www.timothyolsenorganist.com>):
    - a. “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty” (LOBE DEN HERREN)
    - b. “O God, Our Help in Ages Past” (ST. ANNE)
    - c. “Abide with Me” (EVENTIDE)
- Note:* All embellishments to the hymn must be composed or improvised by the competitor. No published or otherwise created music by another person is allowed.
4. The total time allowed for each of the CD and finals round is 25 minutes including the hymn; NO editing of the recording is allowed.
  5. Letters of recommendation are required from the student’s primary organ teacher, and from a second musician who knows the student’s current work and level of achievement.
  6. Up to Eight (8) finalists will be chosen based on their submitted recordings and letters of recommendations, and will be notified via email by December 20, 2018. The University of North Carolina School of the Arts has the sole authority to determine the composition of the pool of eight (8) finalists.
  7. Finalists will perform the same repertoire that was submitted on the CD recording, including the hymn (the embellishments/improvisation may be modified for the competition).
  8. Completed application forms, CD recording of the two contrasting works and hymn, and a $75 registration fee (checks made payable to: UNCSA Foundation) must be received by December 15, 2018. They should be sent to the following address:

Prizes totaling more than $12,000 may be awarded including the following prizes*:

- First Prize: $2000 (or one year of in-state tuition to UNCOSA, currently valued at over $8500)
Second Prize: $1000 (Sponsored by the Piedmont NC AGO Chapter and $3000 scholarship if prize-winner matriculates to UNCOSA)
Third Prize: $500
Hymn prize: $350 (In honor of Dr. John and Margaret Mueller); awarded separately from other prizes

*All prize-winners will receive their choice of one volume of the new Bach edition published by Wayne Leupold Editions, compliments of the publisher.

9. Prize-winners will perform in recital on Saturday afternoon at 5:00 PM on the competition instrument, performing repertoire from the competition. All contestants are encouraged to remain throughout the weekend for the workshop, master class and lessons.
10. The use of photocopied or other illegally reproduced copyrighted scores of music is strictly prohibited, and will disqualify any competitor from participation in the competition. Exceptions to this rule apply only to reductions and to pages duplicated for the purpose of facilitating page turns.
11. Page-turners will be made available upon the contestant's request; no assistance will be allowed for registration or pushing pistons.
12. Practice time will be arranged in advance after finalists have been selected. Ample time will be provided.
13. Scores of the pieces to be performed must be furnished upon request.
14. The order of performance on the competition day will be drawn at random prior to the competition.
15. Hotel information will be provided upon request (hotels will be at the competitor's expense).
16. The competition may be used by high school seniors as an audition into college (UNCOSA or Salem College). Those younger wishing to audition into UNCOSA's high school program may also use the competition as their audition. All competitors wishing to matriculate will need to follow all other application processes.
17. The application fee may be waived in the case of demonstrated financial need. Please contact Dr. Olsen to be considered.
18. Previous First-Prize winners are ineligible to compete.
